HONOLULU GIRL FIGURES IN NEW ROMANCE OF SEA

Voyage of Nippon Maru Proves That Cupid Can 'Go Some'
on the Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Cupid is getting on very friendly terms with Father Neptune. In fact, the little love god and the Old Man of the Sea appear to be working hand in hand in the furtherance of romance, according to passengers on the liner Nippon Maru, which arrived yesterday from the Far East.

If the stories related by passengers who made the round trip on the liner and the officers of the ship themselves are to be credited, young Dan must have about emptied his quiver of arrows on the outward voyage of the Nippon from the Golden Gate.

One marriage and several engagements, were the outcome of the trip, report the passengers, who hint that Cupid had not only the glamour of the tropical seas and moonlit decks for his aids, but also in some cases the assistance of Captain Alfred G. Stevens, the handsome young skipper, who, being a benedict, knows a few things about the art of matchmaking.

A Naval Engagement.
Taking them consecutively as they might be entered in Cupid's log book, the sea romance began with that of Lieutenant F. F. Rogers, United States Navy, an attaché of the American Embassy at Tokio, and Miss Helen Zurbonsen, the handsome daughter of an Admiral in the Kaiser's navy.

Hardly had the liner cleared the Golden Gate than the dashing young naval officer was attracted by the charms of the chic German girl, who was bound for home, accompanied by her chum, Miss Lena Roth, after a two years' stay in the United States. From his vantage point somewhere among the sheltering lifeboats Cupid fired his first arrow, piercing the lieutenant's heart and wounding him quite severely.

The dart was a little slower in causing the other necessary victim to surrender, but surrender it was. Three days after leaving Honolulu, where a stroll along Waikiki beach and a dip in the flashing surf further aided the love god, the Navy officer proposed and was accepted. Miss Zurbonsen will return to her home in Germany. It is said, where she will be joined by her fiancé, as soon as he secures a leave of absence, and the wedding bells will tinkle.

Cupid was now in full charge of the situation. Neptune was never in a more complacent mood. The calm, unruffled seas stretched away in the moonlight from the liner's bow; the gentle zephyrs played aloft in the rigging and the pleasant hum of the propellers was as music.

There Were Others.
Romance No. 1 safely launched, Cupid focused his marine blazes and peeped about for other conquests. The next couple to become engaged were J. D. Halliday, a newspaper man going out to establish a magazine in Japan, and Miss Marie Phillips, a Honolulu girl who joined the liner at the island port for a pleasure trip to the Orient.

A. N. Quayle, bound for Manila, and Mrs. J. B. Davis, who was on a visit to Japan, were reported to be the third victims. They were married at Yokohama, say the Nippon's passengers, but Cupid may have wept a few tears over this victory of his, for it was also reported that the couple separated at Shanghai.

If there had been a society editor on board she would have been busy jotting down engagements, but unfortunately this gracious person was not a passenger. There is no further record of betrothals except that the passengers say there were at least four other romances.

Cupid made one error, however. The moon was not shining brightly on that particular night, and somehow the avalanche of darts fluttered in the wrong direction. A Manila business man got hit by one of the misdirected arrows, for when he proposed, say the passengers, the object of his affections became indignant and haughtily announced:

"Sir, I am a married woman!"

BEWARE OF COLDS.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.—advertisement.

Lieuts. Archie Miller, Arthur H. Wilson and John Kennedy; and Quartermaster's Sergeant J. Henderson, all of the Sixth Cavalry, and Captain Julian Ganjot of the First Cavalry have been awarded the medal of honor by Taft for bravery in the Philippines and in Arizona fighting.

HOW TO PREVENT NERVOUSNESS

Most Disorders of the Nerves
Come from One Cause and May Be Prevented or Cured.

It is never too late to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for nervous troubles.

You can be certain that a breakdown or exhaustion of your nerves is due to a lack of nourishment caused by thin or impure blood. The starved nerves break down after an unusual strain. This condition is easily remedied with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They start at once to build up the blood, making it richer and purer with every dose, thereby checking further wear on the nerves and the progress of the disease. The new blood makes the nerves more fit every day to do their work.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shepherd, of No. 1216 Washington street, Kansas City, Mo., says:

"I gladly tell of my experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was suffering with partial paralysis of the left side of my face, the trouble beginning with a general breakdown of the nervous system. First I had a severe ache which came on very suddenly. My left ear seemed to be held in a vice. There was a prickling sensation throughout my head and left side of my face. My eyes were affected and the left side of my face became partially paralyzed. The pains were very severe. I was weak, could not get a good night's rest and lost in flesh. My circulation was poor."

"I was treated by doctors at Ossawatimie, Kan., who pronounced my affliction partial paralysis. They gave me only temporary relief. I also took electric treatments for a time. After a year of suffering, during which time I was occasionally confined to bed for a day or so, I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I received benefit sooner than I hoped for and gained in strength rapidly. The prickling sensations disappeared and I took the pills until cured. I have great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

We will send free upon request our new booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," to anyone interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

PROMOTION LECTURER GETS MUCH PUBLICITY

Scattering the merits of Hawaii nel broadcast over the Canadian Northwest, Walter G. Smith has commenced his invasion of Eastern Canada, and his lectures are creating keen interest in every city he visits. As a result, it bids fair that Hawaii will receive more tourist trade from Canada than ever before.

Through the medium of the press, Mr. Smith has received liberal publicity, and many of the articles have found their way to the office of the local promotion committee. On November 20, he gave a lecture at Saskatoon before the members of the Real Estate Board, and at Edmonton, on the sixteenth, he gave an illustrated lecture at which there was not even standing room.

A clipping from the Saskatoon Star, of November 20, says:

"Any Saskatoon man in Honolulu today would have got up with the minah birds and sat on the front porch in his kimono or pajamas to read his morning paper. Breakfast would have called him around the corner of his shaded lanai where he would have had a breakfast of papaya or fresh figs and cream, a mullet fried in butter, a broiled plover, and some of that incomparable Hawaiian coffee. In the middle of the forenoon he would have got on the trolley for the beach and have a surf-bath before lunch. Finally, in the afternoon, he would have motored to some of the delightful places described by Walter G. Smith in his illustrated lecture at the First Baptist Church."

It is expected that Mr. Smith will soon finish his series of lectures in Canada, and from there he will visit some of the larger cities in the eastern part of the United States.

DECAPITATES SISTER IN FIT OF TEMPER

Fiendish Crime Committed by Infuriated Miner

RAWLINS, Wyo., Nov. 18.—Melvin Davis, 21 years old, a miner, fired a rifle shot at his sister, Mrs. Frank Ryder, Saturday as she sought refuge in her mother's arms, then pursued her into the yard, where he seized an ax and with one blow severed her head from her body. He fled, pursued by a mob which quickly formed, and by Sheriff Dan Campbell and deputies. Davis was caught at the Carlson Timber and Lumber Company's plant, several miles from here today by the sheriff, and it required the utmost efforts to prevent a lynching. With his revolver holding back the crowd, the sheriff put his captive on a Union Pacific motor car and rushed him here to the county jail.

The death of Mrs. Ryder leaves motherless six small children, two of whom witnessed the slaying. Before the madman swung his ax, one of the little girls ran forward, crying, "Uncle Mel, don't kill mamma!" But the words were hardly out of the child's mouth when the ax swung and the decapitated body crumpled in a heap.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the man who slew his sister, fell in a faint, from which she has not recovered, and it is feared the shock will prove fatal. The father, which Davis fired, narrowly missed mother and daughter.

A man 100 years old was found wandering in the woods near Memphis, Tenn. He had been lost five days.
